

Date : 25.09.26

9. Find() : Function locates the starting position of a text string within another text string and it is "Case-sensitive". It is best to match exact letter formatting ("A" & "a")

Syntax : Find(text);

Ex : Find("a", K2); K2 = Ram

Output : 2

10. SEARCH() : Function locates one text string within a second text string and returns the no. of starting position and it matches the position of letter and it is not a case-sensitive.

Syntax :- Search(text)

Ex. :- Search("A", K2); K2 = Ram

Output :- 2

11. Left + Find() : Function is used to locate the text from left and find that locate the specific, like to extract the first name from a full name. -1 for not including space.

Syntax :- LEFT(text, Find(text))

Ex :- LEFT(J3, Find(" ", J3)-1); J3 = Usha Rani

Output :- Usha

12. MID, Find, LEN() : Function is used to extract the second name from the full name. MID() extracts a specific no. of char from middle of a text string position. Find() Search for a particular string position, LEN() function counts the total num. of char in text including space.

Syntax : MID(text, Find(text), LEN(text))

Ex : MID(J3, Find(" ", J3)+1, LEN(J3)); J3 = Usha Rani

Output : Rani

13. Operator () : Function is joining the first name and second name & ' symbol is a concatenation Operator. is used to join / combine two or more pieces of text to one string.

Syntax :- = Ope N3 & " " & O3

ex :- N3 = Usha, O3 = Rani

Output :- UshaRani

14. CONCAT () :- Function used to join the text. it text are having two separate strings by selecting the 2 texts & join / combine the two strings

Syntax :- CONCAT (text)

ex :- CONCAT (N2, " ", O2) N2 = Chandra, O2 = Sravani

Output :- Chandra Sravani

15. Text join :- Function is similar to the concat. But the function having a delimiter which adds the space or " " like specific character & and ignore is "1" for empty space. by selecting two strings it combine with the given function.

Syntax :- Text join (delimiter, ignore empty, text)

ex :- Text join (" ", 1, N3, O3), N3 = Usha, O3 = Rani

Output :- Usha - Rani

16. Substitute () :- The function is used to change the selected letter by giving the New letter that modifies the selected letter with new letter by substituting their place.

Syntax :- Substitute(text, oldtext, newtext)

Ex :- Substitute(U₂, "a", "@") : U₂ = Ram

Output :- R@m.

17 :- Replace() :- This function is same as Substitute But in this we replace the position that we given.

Syntax :- Replace(us-text, startnum, numchar, newtext)

Ex :- Replace(U₅, 2, 1, "@") : U₅ = mouni
2 = position we select

Output :- m@uni